GRANT COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

FALL IS A BUSY TIME

Estate planning and document review

Guess what is just around the corner?

Yes, it is almost time for

Grant County Gives

This year's event will be held
Oct 31—Nov 6, 2021

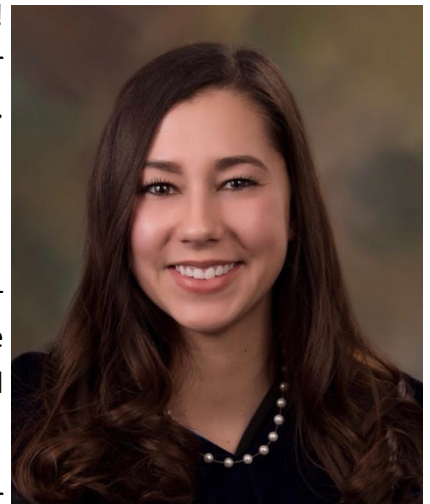

But, organizations start some of their fundraising efforts during October, so you may see a variety of giving opportunities start cropping up.

The matching fund for this year is an awesome $44,000.

This has become an important event in our community and we hope you will give generously to those groups you care about and support

Nobody likes to talk about the inevitable! And yet, it is so important to make your plans and get your instructions in writing. This much we know:

- Death comes to us all.
- If you don't have a will or trust document that spells out your wishes, the State of Kansas has one for you. And it probably won't be what you want.

This is a new and important service for our community and the GCCF. Sarah Gunkle, Trust Attorney at Grant County Bank will be in the foundation office one-half day a month to visit about the important considerations in setting up your estate plan. Or, if you already have one, she is happy to review it with you. This is an opportunity to ask questions and investigate options in a non-threatening environment. Thanks to the generosity of Grant County Bank and Ms. Gunkle, this service is free to you.

- ◆ Sarah will not draft documents, but will help you prepare for your visit with your attorney.
- ◆ All conversations with Ms. Gunkle will be held in confidence.
- ◆ Rest easy that there will be no pressure to donate to the GCCF during the sessions.

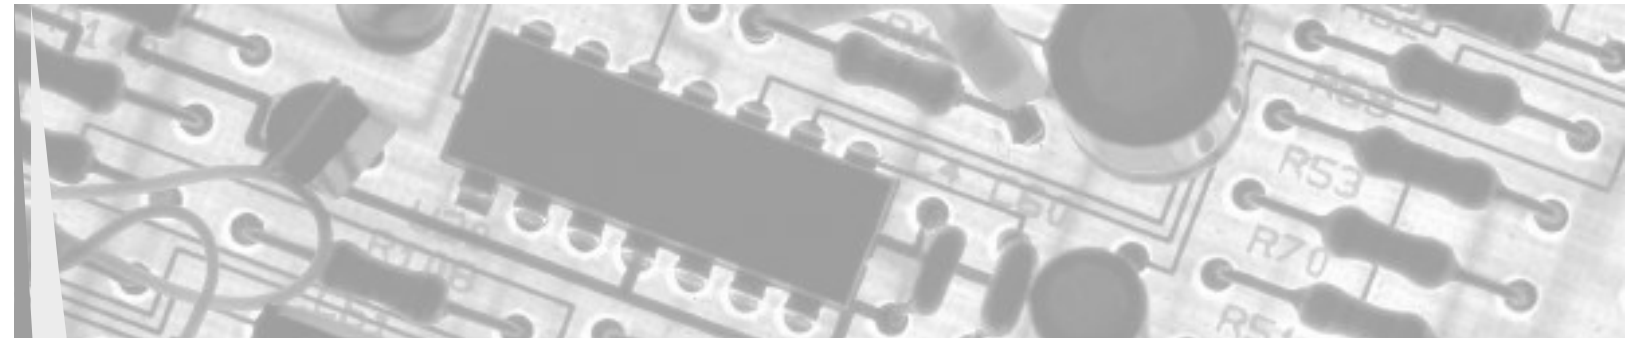

Call Sue-Ellen Borthwick at 620-356-4223 or Judy Keusler at 620-353-4287 to schedule your appointment. The next available date is Tuesday, October 26th from 1:00—5:00.

You should always consult with your professional advisors about your estate plan prior to making a charitable gift.*
